

2009: what a start!

A solo exhibition Moving in the gallery of the famous interior designer Shigeru Uchida and the issue of my book Waving Space.

From January 14th to February 6th my solo exhibition was on show in gallery Le Bain in Tokyo, where I transformed two spaces into Moving. For getting an impression, please visit my renewed website www.sibylheijnen.com - recent works -Le Bain – more pictures.

After the opening by Mrs. Marion Pennink, cultural attaché of the Royal Dutch Embassy, my book Waving Space was launched; an illustrated report of my solo exhibition Look! Sibyl Heijnen in the National Museum of Modern Art in Kyoto in 2007.

Publication:

An extensive interview – in dutch – has been published in the March issue of Wonen in Twente.

Current exhibitions:

Via The Netherlands and Ireland my RememberRing is still on view in Gallery Cebra in Germany.

May 30th the exhibition Borne Beelden Buiten Binnen was opened by ????. Together with 6 other artists I try to give Borne a 'new look'. At and special for the town hall I made Hanging; with Feeling I tried to transform a field of grass into a piece of art. If you have a chance, please visit Borne and get caught by Hanging and Feeling. Please mail me your experiences at sibyl.feeling.heijnen@gmail.nl.

The exhibition is open during the whole summer and will last until September 30th.

Upcoming?

Two solo exhibitions in KNSTSPR in Hardenberg and Hof '88 in Almelo, The Netherlands and the Open Atelierroute on September 26th and 27th.
